-Rush

We are done with our rush week for the spring semester. We enjoyed a steaks and cigars poker night at Nolan Tenaglia, Mike Groseclose, and Nick Rookstool's house beachside on Monday. Tuesday was our cookout and volleyball tournament with the ladies of Sigma Sigma Sigma at the McKay BBQ pits. On Wednesday, we had a tailgate and cookout before the Greek vs. ROTC themed basketball game. Finally on Thursday, we enjoyed socializing with the potentials at the beach. We had a disappointing turnout at the invite-only dinner as only five potentials showed up. As of now we have two confirmed pledges for this spring with another 2-8 other potentials who are still interested in pledging. More updates to come.

-AMC

Chris Cowan is done with his term of "A" and is ready to go for the associate member program this spring. He has come up with a plan to teach the new AM's this semester.

-Brotherhood

The majority of the chapter showed up in mass at the Rolex 24 Hour race this past on January 29th. Everyone had a great time despite the hiked up infield ticket prices this year.

-Philanthropy

Tim Hauenstein has the Jimmy V Beauty Pageant is tentatively set for the 7th of April

-Scholarship

The applicants from our chapter are awaiting the results of the Greg Nelli/Pat and Susan Phelan Scholarship. Our test bank is almost finished for now, and it should be a helpful study tool for our brothers.

-Social

We are in the process of planning various socials for the semester. Some things we are considering include a highlighter party, Ginnie Springs, and a pig roast with Sigma Chi after Greek Week.

-Athletics

We are signed up to start intramurals next week. So far we will be playing soccer and softball.

-IFC

Steve Moshinski was nominated for Vice President internal for the IFC exec board but after a close vote, but he and six other nominees did not make it through.

-Fundraising

Nick Rookstool has set up our fundraising event at the Superstretch for the Daytona 500 race. We will be selling pretzels and lemonade so if you are around, stop by and say hey. He is also planning a fundraising event at Monster Jam in Jacksonville doing either concessions or parking.

-Public Relations

We invested this semester in our own A-Frame signs so we can promote our activities and events on campus. Last semester, SGA got rid of the banners that hung in the UC, so every chapter is on their own for promotion. We used these for Rush week, our tailgating, and plan to use them for the Jimmy V pageant.

-Retreat

Our retreat went great this semester. Everybody showed up, and we talked majorly about recruitment for the semester. So far, it is starting to pay off with the potentials that have been showing up for rush week. We also talked about Robert's Rules of Order with BB- Mike Ninivaggi and how they helped him out in the business world. Lastly, we went around and offered brothers our inputs on how they are doing in their committee chairs. Everyone definitely got some useful information for the semester.

-Delta Chi Tailgate

We have collaborated with the basketball team to have a tailgate before every game this semester. We hope to use this to not only have a good time, but also improve our campus involvement and public relations. We plan to tailgate with different sororities, fraternities, and organizations each week.

-Upcoming Events

Attached to this email, you will find a full calendar of anticipated events for our chapter this spring semester. These things include:

- Greek Week
- AOA Pull a Plane
- Spring Break in the Bahamas
- RLC
- Daytona 500 fundraising
- Ginnie Springs social
